DEPLORABLE CONDITION OF THE NATIONAL TREASURY.—The Washington Correspondent of

Looking at the weekly statement of the Treasry, even through official spectacles, it is discour-ging enough, but when examined by scrutinizaging enough, but when examined by scraim 2-ing eyes, it becomes positively deplorable. It is stated that the balance in the Treasury, subject to draft, is $5,014,705 75. This is nominally true, but practically false, because nearly two millions are in the Mints and Assay Office, and not applicable to any drawing demand of the Secretary. The actual amount liable to draft is but $3,290,158 29, against which there are outstanding drafts not paid of $2,093,887 19, leavng a net balance of $1,196,271 10, in all parts troops destined to reinforce the troops now enof the United States. These figures cannot be controverted or disputed, because they represent inexorable facts. They serve to show, in part, why it is that poor mechanics employed at the New York Navy Yard, and elsewhere, have not etter have afforded to wait. But this is not all. The receipts into the Treasmuch thereof has been expended, and for what purposes. And that he further report how many days he and his assistants have been engaged in the prosecution of said survey since the last session of the Legislature, and what portion of the time in field service.

Mr. SUDDUTH offered the following resolution which was adopted, viz:

Resolved by the Senate, That the Auditor be requested to furnish the Senate with a report of all money paid on account of the Geological ed the beggarly sum of $326,565 88, which, at the same rate, would not yield more than seventeen millions a year, from customs, lands, and miscellaneous sources, or four millions less than the first quarter, which ended on the 30th September. And yet, while the public faith is thus discredited even to laboring men who toil for their daily bread, politicians harangue Congress by the week, over fillibusters and "niggers," without once considering their duty towards these urgent material interests. ury for the past week, from all sources, only reached the beggarly sum of $326,565 88, which, at ablish a conventional rate of interest. Mr. WINFREY said: Mr. SPEAKER, The bill now before the house establish a conventional rate of interest is on leserves the calm and dispassionate considerate eration of every member on this floor .lts object, sir, is to uproot and destroy, an old and, I might add a salutary principle of law, established by the sages of our commonwealth, devised by them for our best interest; and in confirmation of its justice and correctness, it has received the approbation of Kentucky's wisest and best citizens for more than a half contury. post citizens for more than a half century. And before this legislature attempts its destruction and the establishment of the bill now before the house we should weigh the consequences of its repeal with that wisdom and scrutinizing care that its importance demands. Sir, a law under which we have lived and prospered for a half century, should not be repealed until its defectiveness is clearly pointed out and the evil intended to be removed be satisfactorily demonstrated. This apprehend cannot be done in the present instance Money in the coffers of its holders does not, no can it, increase, and therefore to its owner it is a dead capital until put into circulation. Only two reasons can be given why money should draw in-terest: first, there is some risk of its loss; second, he is deprived of its use.

The risk of its loss, if judiciously loaned, could not exceed two per cent. and the pleasure of hav ng it at the owner's control and within his grasp ould not be worth over four per cent.

Mr Speaker, I offer another and in my humble conception a very powerful reason, why this bill should not pass. It would affect the entire indebtedness of our State contracted before the passage of this bill, when the law allowed the resulting to event only six no cent, and while the reditor to exact only six per cent., and while the infortunate debtor could not be forced or expect ed to pay over the amount—contracted, sir, upon the faith of the continuation of the present law, and but for such faith thousands of debts now owing never would have been created. You will increase their burden at the tune of four-tenths and thus crush to the earth, many who but for this additional burden would have recovered from their embarrassment. Pass this bill and within less than twenty days from its passage over one half of the debtors of our State will receive a po lite note that their debt must be paid or the note enewed with the beautiful clause inserted there in, this note by agreement of parties bears ter per cent. until paid; in this unfortunate predicament the debtor will be inevitably placed. A large portion of the indebtedness of our State is upon contracts for realty, purchased, sir, upon the faith of getting some indulgence and realizing from the products of the land the greater part of the purchase money; add ten per cent. on their in debtedness, and one-tenth of the land so pur chased, would be sold by the Sheriff to pay the interest thus forced upon them indirectly by this legislature. These Mr Speaker, are some of the legitimate consequences that will follow its bassage, and above all I am sustained by holy writ in my opposition to the usurer and extortioner. I know not, nor do I care how najority of my constituents stand upon this bill was sent here without instruction and untram meled that I might weigh, analyze, digest and properly appreciate the importance of every bil Mr. SPEAKER, it has been the policy of every we rganized government, to protect the weak again the strong, for the simple reason that the stron can protect themselves, the weak will need ou assistance. Who, sir, will we foster and build up by the passage of this law? the money holders While the poorer class who have gone in debt to rocure a small farm upon which to rear their ty, his best interests and highest hopes blasted forever, the energies crippled and the arm of in

No sooner than you legalize ten per cent. then fif teen will be demanded, it is imposible to satiate the thirst of the avaricious. I hope the bill will not pass, it is in opposition to the best interest of our State. I will detain the house no longer.

Remarks of Mr. WINFREY, on a bill to es | Dr. Stringfellow's Letter against the Lecompton Constitution.

WASHINGTON Jan 7 1848. To the Editor of the Herald: Inclosed is a com-nunication, prepared by Dr. J. H. Stringfellow f Kansas, for publication in the Washington Inion. That paper has declined to publish it .-At his request, in such an event-he having the meantime set out on his return home-I for ward it to you, and ask for it an insertion. Respectfully, your obedient servant, MAKCUS J. PARROTT.

Washington, Jan. 5, 1858. To the Editor of the Union: In the New York Tribune of the 4th January, a correspondent from this place, in noticing my arrival, uses this language: "Stringfellow, of Kansas notoriety, arrived here last night. He denounces the Le-compton Constitution as an imposition. It is too gross an outrage even for him."

I am not vain enough to presume that my opinions will have any effect in settling this vexd Kansas question. Still I am unwilling to have hem misrepresented. I will state what I have said on this subject. When I arrived in Washington on the 25th December last, directly from Kansas, ound a division in the Democratic party here on that part of the President's message relative to Kansas matters. I stated then that, although there was no violation of principle in not refer irect vote, it would have been wiser to have submitted it, as there was an understanding mongst the people that such would be the case and all parties would have been satisfied; that the South at best could only obtain a mere empty and temporary triumph, the question having al-ready been settled against them by emigration, the only way in which that settlement could per manently be effected. In a few days after my arrival, it was announ that acting Governor Stanton had convened the Ferritorial Legislature in extra session, a course he had undoubted authority to pursue, however much the policy may be doubted. The representatives of the people, elected by 13,000 otes, 9,000 of whom voted for Mr. Parrot for Congress, as being opposed to any constitution from the Lecompton Convention, passed a bill providing for the submission of the constitution the only opportunity they could have of expressing their objection to that instrument, or of be admitted into the Union under it. I have aid that, should the Democratic members from the free States, urged on by the South, and for no practical good to the South, lug Kansas into the Inion against the remonstrance of two-thirds of he people, that remonstrance expressed in the only of the people under the act of the Legislature, with all the penalties for fraudulent voting tha could be provided by law, that in such event the Democratic party would of necessity, be broken down at the North, the peace and interests of Missouri and Kansas, if not the whole Union, seriously endangered, and by no sort of contin-gency could the interests of the South in Kansas be advanced. So believing, I have urged that if the people of Kansas, by their vote on Monday ast, did, by a large majority, decide against the onstitution, that Congress, and especially south the people thus expressed, reject the application for admission, and at once pass an act for the for mation of a new constitution upon terms similar to those proposed by the "Toombs bill" of 1856

They were undulating and asted several seconds, but were so violent as cause the bells to ring, and the walls of every se to swing backwards and forwards visibly Many thousands of persons passed the night in the streets, and many in their carriages, the horses of which were taken out. From 11 o'clock till near 2 o'clock in the morning, I walked through the crowded streets, where every indication of fundred yards, and hundreds of people were grouped around them. ### Love's Seasons and Reasons.

BY DR. MACKAY. I love my love in spring time,
For beauty fresh as May,
For cheeks like early roses,
For eyes as bright as day;
For breath like balm of lillies,
For smiles like sunrise clear;
I love my love in spring time,
And love her all the year.

I love my love in summer,
For promise warm and true,
For truth like noonday throwing
A light on old and new:
For wealth of bloom and freshness,
And shady comfort near,
I love my love in summer,
And love her all the year.

I love my love in autumn,
For fruit of gentle deeds,
For wisdom to be garnered
To serve our fature needs;
For virtues ripening ever,
Like harvests full in ear,
I love my love in autumn,
And love her all the year,

I love my love in winter,
For charities untold,
For warmth of household welcome,
For looks that thaw the cold;
For harmless mirth and pastime,
And rich as Christmas cheer,
I love my love in winter,
And love her all the year.

American State Convention.

The American Executive Committee for the State at large have called a convention of the delegates of the American party of the State to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

The convention will be held in this city, Wednesday, January 27th inst. The basis of representation will be two delegates for each Representative district; that is, two delegates for each Representative in the lower branch of the State Legislature.

It is hoped that this Convention will be fully attended, and that the watch fires of the American party will be made to glow with renewed brightness throughout the American papers throughout the State are requested to call attention to this Convention.

Attention Americans.

There will be a meeting of the Americans of Franklin county at the Court House, on next Monday, (County Court day,) for the purpose o selecting delegates to attend the State Conven tion to be held on the 27th inst. Let every one, who can, attend, as it is of the utmost importance that the sentiment of the people should be made known as to who shall be our candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

The Appellate Clerkship. To the Editor of the Commonwealth :

Napoleon after a career of unprecedented success, failed-rose again, had his one hundred days of glory, which ending, sunk him forever in the dim pall of a night of starless, hopeless gloom. So with the Democracy, triumphs have been theirs unequalled in political history. They have had the Marengo of their fortunes and have fallenhave risen again in the excitement of the moment, and are now hurrying on to the Waterloo of their defeat, where they will sink to rise no more. The undisguised anarchial tendencies of the party are fast rallying every element of our political system into the league which must overwhelm them, and Kentucky is the Belgium where the commencement of the crushing scene must be

In the coming contest for the Appellate Clerkship will be tested the force of rampant, ambitious, self-glorifying Democracy, with all its par ty despotism, and the union of those conservative political elements, upon which we must rely for the preservation of all held dear to our hearts. given us by our fathers fresh and pure from the fires of our revolution. The foe is in the field. and the opposition must be mustered, and under whose leadership? I would propose the name of Col. JOHN B. HERNDON, of Mason county. He has been faithful even under the most adverse circumstances-he is able as a writer, effective as a speaker, business like in his habits, pure in his morals, deserving in all respects, and could, perhaps, better than any other man secure the combined influences which would ensure his election. In him Mr. Revill would find a worthy competitor, by whom he can as well be beaten, (as we heartily wish he may be,) as by any other man in NORTH KENTUCKY.

For the Commonwealth.

I have perused with amazement in this morning's Yeoman, an article on conventional interest over the signature of "Johnson." "Johnson" takes the position occupied by kings, aristocrats, bankers, and the supporters of arbitrary irresponsible power in all ages, "that money possesses no intrinsic value of itself, but is simply the representative of property, adopted for the purpose of convenience." This is the quintessence of anti Democratic doctrine on currency, opposed by Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, and Buchanan. I had supposed from the paper in which this article appeared, and the signature that its writer was a Democrat. But as he opposes the leading principle of the Democratic party on which they have bravely battled against banks, paper money, and making anything but gold and silver, articles of intrinsic value, a tender in payment of debt, I am forced to the conclusion that he is either no Democrat or is utterly ignorant of Democratic doctrine. Let me ask him, and I hope he will answer, why were gold and silver selected in preference of all other productions or substances on which to impose the function of representation of all other property? For what reasons were they made the national currency? Why was not leather, wood or paper, adopted by the framers of the Costitu-tion? If for "convenience," paper would have been better, occupying less space, lighter-transmissible with more ease and at less expense-on of the arguments used by the aristocrats, Bid dle ites and bankers, in favor of a United States bank and paper money everywhere. The Whigs, with Washington and Hamilton at their head, then called Federalists, agreed with Jefferson and Madison in the great basic idea of currency, that nothing but property of intrinsic value should be made the representative of all property. Hence, gold and silver were made "money," the medium of exchange. The strongest advocates for banks have never contended for any sort of banks whose paper should not be convertible into gold and silver. And the Democrats have opposed them so far as the currency ques_ tion is involved, on the ground that bank notes would not be always, (as they ought to be,) convertible into the real stuff, gold and silver.

A DEMOCRAT OF THE OLD SCHOOL. January 14th, 1858.

TWe give up our editorial space to day to the report of the State Agricultural Convention. The object of the meeting was an important one, and the report of the proceedings will, doubtless, be interesting.

The annual meeting of this Society was held the present year. at the Court-House in Frankfort, in accordance with the charter, on Wednesday, January 13th, President CLAY took the chair and called the meeting to order, and made an address setting forth the objects of the meeting, and giving a brief account of the proceedings of the Society during the past year, and impressing on the meetng the importance of selecting able, active, in dustrious and intelligent gentlemen to fill the offices of the Society, from all the different sections of the State. They should feel (he remarked) a deep and abiding interest in the cause of agricultural improvement, and should be willng to receive that for their compensation, as, with two exceptions, that is all the compensation which they receive.

The President asked to be discharged, in future, com the arduous labors which he has hitherto erformed as the President of the Society, by the lection of some other of the numerous gendemen who are so competent to discharge the luties of the office.

On motion and second, the gentlemen in attendnce were requested to come forward and enroll their names and post-office address; when the fol owing gentlemen reported themselves as mem ers for their respective counties, viz:

> THE AMIN BEY FRAUD .-- A ate letter from Constantinople makes statements respecting the through investigation at the State Department:

One charge is that a person who was then, and still is, a salaried officer of this Government, was the agent of the "Amin Bey fraud." This disgraceful affair was rather hushed up; but many vill doubtless remember that an ordinary teacher in the Turkish naval school was brought over ere by an attache of the United States at Constantinople, and Palmed off on the United States as the envoy of the Sultan. Mr. Webster, then Secretary of State, was duped into asking $10,000 of Congress for the support of the spurious envoy while in this country, and on this money the itinerant school mas ter and his showman made quite a figure, and were received with all the honors in many of the leading cities.

Secretary Webster was not a little mortified at having yielded so easily to this imposition; but or some reason or other, he overlooked the fault retained in office the culprit who had devised and arried it out at the expense of the country.

Mr. Marsh, our then minister at Constantino le, lent his aid to smooth over the affair with the Sultan, who, says our correspondent, "was surprised and incensed, not less at the imprudence of Amin and his confederate, than at the strange anxiety of the United States minister to stifle public explanations." Mr. Webster may have been ashamed of being so easily duped; bu that would not excuse his retaining in office the partner and prime mover in the trick.

Our friend suggests the possibility of some connection between the extreme indulgence of our minister at Constantinople, in shielding and whitewashing his subordinate, and the preparation of his own claim for $20,000 for extra servi ces, which met with such favor in the late Black Republican Congress.

A call for documents and information on the various cases in which it is alleged the United States ministers at Constantinople have refused or entirely neglected to protect our citizens, would robably reveal some very curious sins of omis ion and commission in that quarter. An official quiry into what the United States legation in Turkey has done, and not done, for last ten years rould, if truly rendered, give us the raciest com edy of diplomacy ever set up by American type [Wash. States.

THE HEART OF NAPOLEON .- The following curious circumstance actually occurred:

When the body of Napoleon was opened at St Helena, his heart was taken out, and preparato ry to its final destination, put in a basin of spirits and water, and left for the night on a table in the bed-room of the medical man who had charge of the matter. In the course of the night, the doctor was awakend from a slight slumber by a heavy splash from the basin, and starting up alarmed, he rested on his elbow, and by the light of a taper looked eagerly around the apartment before he should spring from the bed. Not the shadow of an intruder was to be seen. What had moved

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,

PHILADELPHIA. A Benevolent Institution, established by special endow-ment for the relief of the sick and distressed, af-flicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

Ricted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, GONORRHEA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, the Vice of ONANISM, or SELF-ABUSE, &c., &c. The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition. and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition (age, occupation, habits of life, &c...) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add tha the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just Published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhoza, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a scaled letter envelope.) FREE OF CHRAGE on receipt of TWO STAMPS for post-
